Creating Groups in Blackboard

Blackboard can be used for student group projects and other small group activities. Blackboard groups allow smaller groups of students to meet online privately to share and exchange files, send group emails, participate in discussion boards, collaborate using blogs and wikis, and meet to chat in virtual classrooms. It’s especially useful to be able to create groups if an instructor has multiple sections enrolled in the same Blackboard course, as each section can be set up as a group allowing the instructor a means to communicate with each section individually.

Blackboard now has 3 ways to add students into groups:

• Self-Enroll – Students can select which group they want to join.
• Manual Enroll – The instructor creates the groups and enrolls students in each group.
• Random Enroll – The instructor creates the groups and Blackboard assigns students to the groups randomly.

Creating a group has two parts: first you create the groups, and then you assign students to the group.

Creating Groups

To create groups in your course:

• In the Control Panel of your course, click on Users and Groups and then Groups.
• Point to Create Group Set in the Action Bar and select the type of groups you would like to create. (The options available to each group are the same.)
• Give the groups a name such as ‘Final Project Group’. Blackboard will add a number to each group name (e.g. ‘Final Project Group 1’, ‘Final Project Group 2’).
• Make sure Group Available is set to Yes.
• Decide which tools you would like to make available to each group:
  o Blog – Students can keep individual or group blogs. Both students and the instructor can comment on blog posts. Blogs can be graded.
  o Collaboration – Group chat tools.
  o Discussion Board - Group members can have discussions with one another. Note that instructors must set up the forum for students. If there isn’t one there, contact your instructor.
  o E-mail – Group members can send emails to the members of their group.
  o File Exchange – Group members can share files. Be sure to append filenames with initials to avoid overwriting each other’s files.
  o Journal – Group members can keep individual journals. Only the instructor can read student journal entries. Journals can be graded.
  o Tasks – Group members can set tasks with due dates and priority levels.
  o Wiki – Group members can collaborate on a wiki. Wikis can be graded.

The final steps for assigning students to groups will vary according to the option you have chosen.
Self-Enroll

If you are allowing students to choose their own groups, select the Self-Enroll option. (NOTE: There are two ways to Manual Enroll. Either as a Single Group or as a Group Set).

Single Group → Self Enroll

NOTE: This option sets up only one (1) group at a time. You will have to manually create all the groups you need to have students enroll in.

- Give a name for the Group
- Under Sign-up Options, give a name for the sign-up sheet and instructions for signing up.
- Select which tools you want students to be able to access in their group.
- Select the maximum number of students that can enroll into the group.
- If you want students to see who else is in a group before signing up, click on Show Members.
- Click Submit.

Group Set → Self Enroll

NOTE: This option sets up multiple groups at one time that students can self-enroll in.

- Give a name for the Group
- Under Sign-up Options, give a name for the sign-up sheet and instructions for signing up.
- Select which tools you want students to be able to access in their group.

- Select the total number of groups you would like to create.
- Click Submit.

When your students log in to your course, they go to Tools → Groups to see the group signup sheet. From here, they can click on a button to sign up for a group.
Manual Enroll

If you want to choose which students should go in which groups, select the Manual Enroll option. (NOTE: There are two ways to Manual Enroll. Either as a Single Group or as a Group Set).

Single Group ➔ Manual Enroll

- Select which tools you want students to be able to access in their group.
- Under Membership, click the Add button to choose which students you want to enroll.
- A new window will open and in the Add Users panel, check the students you want to enroll, then click Submit.

- Select which tools you want students to be able to access in their group.
- Under Group Set Options, select the number of groups you would like to create.
- Click Submit. A new window will open up, allowing you to choose members for each group by clicking the Add Users button under each Group Set or by clicking the Randomize Enrollments button to randomly enroll.

Blackboard can also assign students into groups automatically. The instructor has the following options:

- Determine Number of Groups by: Choose either the number of students you want in each group or the total number of groups you want, and Blackboard will divide the students accordingly.

- Determine How to enroll any Remaining Members: If the groups do not divide out evenly, you can choose to distribute the remaining members amongst the groups, put the remaining members in their own group, or manually add the remaining members to groups.
