Information for Graduate International Students

The University:
- Located on a safe suburban 320 acre campus
- Midway between Boston, Massachusetts and New York City
- Only a short distance from Bradley International Airport
- Located on bus line
- All degree programs carry regional and state accreditation or licensure

Students:
- Over 1,700 students currently pursue graduate degrees at the University, approximately 200 of which are from foreign countries.
- Over 40 countries from around the globe represented
- Classes average between 15 and 30 students

Support Services for International Students:
- Orientation Program for new students
- Liaison with U.S. Immigration Service
- International Center that provides international student programming, student counseling and referral (web address: http://uhaweb.hartford.edu/intcenter/)
- English Language Institute (web address: http://www.hartford.edu/eli/)
- Center for Reading and Writing (web address: http://uhaweb.hartford.edu/crw/)

Financial Aid:
- Financial Aid for international graduate students is currently limited to Graduate Assistantships. These Assistantships are administered by the individual departments throughout the University and vary in size and availability.

Library and Learning Resources:
- University libraries collectively have holdings of 600,000 books, journals, microforms, musical scores, sound recordings and videotapes.
- PC’s and Mac’s provide full network access to campus resources, library informational sources, the Internet and CD-ROM databases.
- Computer Labs offer access to extensive inventory of computer equipment with a variety of hardware and software.

Cultural Opportunities:
- Hartford is a rich cultural community and the Greater Hartford area offers a variety of theaters, galleries and museums.
- For more information about studying in the U.S.A. visit: http://educationusa.state.gov/

Housing:
- On-Campus Housing for Graduate students is available through the Office of Residential Life. Most Graduate students prefer to live in off-campus apartments in close proximity to the University.
- For a listing of apartments in the area, visit our Housing webpage or http://apartmentguide.com.