The Office of Orientation presents…..

“Early Adventure 2014”

Would you like to come to the University of Hartford a few days sooner than you planned? Would you like to spend three days / two nights at a picturesque and rustic location in cabins set beneath towering pines with a hundred other entering freshmen? Would you like to be in a beautiful setting with opportunities for interactions that will challenge and encourage you to respect, trust, and cooperate with other new students? Would you like to canoe, play games, swim, sit around a campfire eating ‘smores, and challenge yourself on a ropes course? If so, read on……

Camp Woodstock, located along the shores of beautiful Black Pond in the Woodstock Valley of Connecticut’s northeast corner, is the location of our pre-semester program entitled “EARLY ADVENTURE 2014”. You, along with ninety nine other new students will get to share 48 hours off campus before the start of the fall semester.

Participating students will arrive on campus on Wed, August 27th, between the hours of 9 am -11 am, move into their assigned rooms, and then get on a bus at 1pm for the trip to Camp Woodstock. We will return to campus on Friday morning (August 29th) in time for lunch. Students that are signed up to attend session 5 are also invited to participate and WILL NOT miss any part of Orientation.

The cost for “EARLY ADVENTURE” is $200. This non-refundable fee covers transportation, lodging, and meals. It’s first-come-first-served, so if you are interested, you can register on line or print and send in the form (see below!). A waiting list will be maintained after the program is filled. Any questions? Call the orientation office at 860-768-7003 or email us at orientation@hartford.edu
